

DHPP (Distemper-Adenovirus Type 2- Parainfluenza-Parvovirus) is a vaccine protecting your dog against contagious viral and bacterial infections. These pathogens cause respiratory, gastrointestinal, neurologic, liver and kidney diseases. They can be acquired through the air, contaminated water and other animal feces. Vaccination are given at 6, 8, 12 and 16 weeks then annually.